8th Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Martyr Callinicus pf Grangra in Asia Minor (250). Tone 7. 1 Cor 1:10-18, Matt. 14:14-22.

Troparion of the Resurrection - Tone 7: You destroyed death by Your cross. You opened Paradise to the thief, You changed the Myrrh-Bearers weeping into joy! You commanded the Apostles to preach that You are risen, granting the world great mercy!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Both now, and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Kontakion of the Resurrection - Tone 7: The dominion of death can no longer hold men captive, for Christ descended, shattering and destroying its power! Hell is overthrown, while the prophets rejoice and cry out: "The Saviour has come to those in faith! Enter into His Resurrection!"

Prokeimenon - Tone 7 (Psalm 29): The Lord shall give strength to His People! The Lord shall bless His people with Peace!

Verse: Offer to the Lord, O you sons of God! Offer young rams to the Lord!

1 Cor 1: 10-18 -

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you should be in agreement and that there should be no divisions among you, but that you should be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, 'I belong to Paul', or 'I belong to Apollos', or 'I belong to Cephas', or 'I belong to Christ.' Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power. For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Alleluia – Tone 7: It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing unto Your Name, O Most High.

Verse: To proclaim Your mercy in the morning and Your truth by night.

Matt. 14:14-22

When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.’ Jesus said to them, ‘They need not go away; you give them something to eat.’ They replied, ‘We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.’ And he said, ‘Bring them here to me.’ Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children. Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Communion Verse: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

A note regarding Holy Communion: The Holy Orthodox Church understands Communion to mean that we have all things in common, sharing an identical Faith, and only those who are members of the Orthodox Church and who have prepared themselves through prayer, fasting and recent confession may participate in Holy Communion. If you have questions concerning the above, or if you would like to become a member of the Orthodox Church, please feel free to speak with Fr. Timothy.
